CHAPTER MEETING | NO-COST WEBINAR

REMOTE PROGRAM MANAGEMENT AND AUDITING
May 13, 2021 | 11:30am - 1:00PM

Katelynn Smith, CIH, CSP, MS

Topic: Remote Program Management and Auditing

Remote program management and auditing is not new to the safety and health profession. This has been a practice for years but with the pandemic in our midst it is a skill that more and more safety professionals are needing to grow in. During this presentation Katelynn will walk us through her key learnings over the last year on remote Corporate Auditing and Program Management. She will take us through the process of planning, performing and following up on an audit and how to continuously improve a safety program from afar. The goal is to have members walk away with an understanding of what works and what does not work, how to engage employees and management without being close, and making realistic expectations for ourselves of what we can really do remotely. Come learn and share your experiences as we all take this new journey of work from home while keeping up on compliance and process improvement.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

As this Chapter year comes to a close, it causes me to look back and wonder what impact I had on the Chapter as President. This year certainly wasn't what I had envisioned the previous two years while Vice President and President-Elect. I imagined the way things had always been. The Executive Board and membership meetings would have been in person, and I would have chaired the 2021 GOSH Conference - all those things I had looked very much forward to with great anticipation. As it played out, I never got to see the whites of the eyes of the Executive Board except through Zoom meetings, nor the members, and GOSH was pushed back until 2023. The Columbia-Willamette Chapter is one of the largest and most successful chapters in Society. Canceling GOSH was a significant decision (despite being forced to make that decision) since it eliminated our primary source of revenue for the next two years. All in all, I'd be lying if I said I wasn't more than a little sad and disappointed.

However, I see the advances we have made as a Chapter through this time and how we have adapted. In the summer of 2020, during the planning process, the Executive Board intentionally focused its efforts on ensuring we provide the best service to our members, and the profession as a whole, even at the cost of taking a hit on lost revenue. We realized some of our members may have lost their jobs due to the pandemic and might not continue their membership without an employers' sponsorship. As a result, we developed a scholarship to support those members before learning that Society had also developed a similar hardship assistance program that we could then underwrite. Also, all meetings and PDCs (with CEUs) would be virtual and at no cost to all attendees. In addition, we would record all membership meetings and post them on the Chapter website for those who couldn't attend or wanted to watch the presentations again. I have to acknowledge all this could not have happened without the foresight of previous Chapter leadership teams that focused on the CWC's strength, capacity, and long-term viability.

So, considering all that, maybe it wasn't such a bad year. Actually, looking back, it was a GREAT year!

I have to acknowledge the efforts of the Executive Board as a whole. Their creativity was a constant source of inspiration for me almost daily. Two people I certainly need to recognize humbly are President-Elect Dede Montgomery and Vice President Jimmy Gibbons for their wise advice and counsel throughout the year. Both consistently amazed me with their creativity, commitment, and vision, particularly towards their assigned tasks and duties. I want everyone to know the successes of the year lay primarily on their shoulders. I cannot thank them enough for their support. The Chapter is going to be in great hands if their service this year has been any indication.

It has been an honor and pleasure to serve. I wish you all a wonderful and safe summer.

All the Best,

Mark Frisco, CSP, President ASSP CWC
